CANFIELD CARRIES GAS FIGHT UP TO SUPREME COURT—HEARING ON MAY 14

Justice Hinman at Albany Tuesday Issued Writ of Certiorari Directing Public Service Commission to File All Testimony and Documents in Gas Fight.

Mayor Canfield appeared before Supreme Court Justice Harold J. Hinman at Albany on Tuesday and obtained a writ of certiorari directing the public service commission to file at the special term of the supreme court to be held at the court house in Albany, on May 14, the record and all proceedings had before the commission in the application of the Kingston Gas & Electric Company for higher gas rates in Kingston, which petition was granted by the public service commission.

The writ, which is returnable Saturday, May 14, contains practically all of the facts in the case, and reads as follows:

The People of the State of New York, on the relation of the City of Kingston, to the Public Service Commission of the Second District of the State of New York.

Whereas, we have been informed by the petition of the city of Kingston, verified April 4, 1921, among other things:

First, that the petitioner is a municipal corporation and a political subdivision of the county of Ulster, state of New York.

Second, that the Kingston Gas and Electric Company is a domestic corporation having its principal place of business and address at No. 611 Broadway, Kingston, New York, and is engaged in the manufacture, distribution and sale of mixed gas (water gas and coal gas) in and about the city of Kingston, and also conducts an electrical business.

Third, that Charles B. Hill, Frank Irvine, John A. Barthe, Joseph A. Kellogg and George R. Van Namee, are the members of and constitute the public service commission, second district, of the state of New York. That in and by the act of the legislature approved and effective on or about April 1, 1921, the said public service commission, will be abolished and a new commission substituted in its place with all proceedings continued before or against the new commission to be appointed.

Fourth, that heretofore and on January 11, 1921, an order was made and filed by the public service commission, second district, herein granting to the Kingston Gas & Electric Company, upon its petition, an increase in its schedule for gas rates and charges for gas supplied to its customers in the city of Kingston, which increased charges and rates fixed thereby as the maximum to be enforced for a period of six months from the effective date of the schedule filed thereunder, and thereafter until the commission should otherwise order. A copy of said order is annexed to the petition, made a part thereof and marked "A."

Fifth, that the rates existing prior thereto were as follows:

First 5,000 cubic feet at $1.15 per 1,000 cubic feet.
Next 5,000 cubic feet at $1.10 per 1,000 cubic feet.
Next 10,000 cubic feet at $1.05 per 1,000 cubic feet.
Next 20,000 cubic feet at $1.00 per 1,000 cubic feet.
Next 30,000 cubic feet at $.95 per 1,000 cubic feet.
Next 40,000 cubic feet at $.90 per 1,000 cubic feet.
Next 100,000 cubic feet at $.80 per 1,000 cubic feet.
Minimum charge, $6.00 per year.

Sixth, that in and by said order the said rates were increased about sixty per cent, so as to provide as follows:

For first 5,000 cubic feet, $1.70 per 1,000 cubic feet.
For next 5,000 cubic feet, $1.65 per 1,000 cubic feet.
For next 10,000 cubic feet, $1.60 per 1,000 cubic feet.
For next 20,000 cubic feet, $1.55 per 1,000 cubic feet.
For next 30,000 cubic feet, $1.50 per 1,000 cubic feet.
For next 40,000 cubic feet, $1.45 per 1,000 cubic feet.
For over 100,000 cubic feet, $1.35 per 1,000 cubic feet.

and in connection therewith provide a discount of ten cents per thousand cubic feet in accordance with its present rate governing bills, provided, however, that the charge and rate specified in the schedule filed under authority of this order shall not be billed to any customer for gas supplied prior to the first meter reading subsequent to the effective date of such schedule.

Seventh, that said order is based upon the reasons stated in the opinion rendered by the commission in the matter. That the main opinion is written by Commissioner Kellogg and is about twenty-three pages in length. That in and by his opinion it is stated that the order shall fix the maximum rates at $1.40 net per M. C. F. or less, less per M. C. F. than is provided in the order filed. That Commissioner Irvine wrote an opinion, concurring in the order filed, and Commissioner Van Namee, dissenting from the order, and that the rate shall be as above stated as provided by the order. That Commissioner Barthe dissented from the order and dissented from the order and dissented from the order.

SEES NO NEED OF NEW CENSORS

Mayor Canfield Opposes Motion Picture Censorship Bill, Pointing Out Machinery Already Exists To Punish Pictorial Producers.

Mayor Canfield appeared before the senate finance committee at Albany on Tuesday in opposition to the Lusk-Clayton bill to establish a state censorship on motion pictures, the mayor representing the Mayors' Bureau of the state of New York, which is unanimously of the opinion that the National Board of Review offers the best solution for the regulation of motion pictures, supplemented by municipal cooperation and regulation.

The hearing on the Lusk-Clayton bill, which is part of Governor Miller's program for bettering the people of the state, lasted five hours, and while producers and note writers told the committee that censorship meant strangulation, those in favor of the bill denounced unregulated pictures as the greatest menace to the morals of the nation.

Among those who opposed the bill were William A. Brady, one of the leading producers of America, who spoke on behalf of all motion picture producers; D. W. Griffith, who famous production of "War of the Worlds" in this city some time ago before it was produced in New York, is one of the most noted producers now being shown; Rex Beach, the famous novelist, who is president of the Authors' League of America; E. A. Moray, chairman of the legislative committee of the National Board of Review; Hugh Frayne, representing Samuel Gompers and labor, throughout the country, and Mayor Canfield of this city, representing the Mayors' Bureau.

What Investigation Disclosed.

Mayor Canfield, in presenting the opposition of the Mayors' Bureau of the state to any state censorship of motion pictures, first briefly reviewed the action taken at the tenth annual conference of city officials and the appointment of a committee which had studied the motion picture problem.

The committee, said Mayor Canfield, found as a matter of fact that motion pictures are not primarily a business, although their production and exhibition has become the fifth greatest business in the country, and that an attempt to regulate pictures merely as a business would not be a fair, proper or true regulation. The committee also decided that motion pictures are not primarily an educational movement; they are educational and may be used as a means of education but cannot be characterized principally from that standpoint. The committee formed the opinion that there is a decided and distinct difference between motion pictures and books, papers or magazines, and that motion pictures are not primarily an educational movement; they are educational and may be used as a means of education but cannot be characterized principally from that standpoint.

Solution of an Art Problem.

But the committee did find and decide that motion pictures are primarily an art, and that the proper and logical regulation of motion pictures is such as should be applied to art; that motion pictures should not be censored mechanically and arbitrarily, but should be regulated by the review thereof by people who know and who so love and appreciate art as to be anxious for its perfection to the point of voluntary service in review to protect the public and to elevate the art.

It was the unanimous consensus of opinion that the National Board of Review offered the best solution for the regulation of motion pictures, supplemented by municipal co-operation and regulation.

Who Compose National Board.

The National Board of Review is a general committee of thirty-five persons, consisting of leading representatives of the literary, civic, welfare and children's organizations and associations and the churches. It is composed of men and women desiring and striving for a higher ethical and moral standard, who are not connected in any way with the motion picture industry but serve voluntarily without compensation. The men and women who do the reviewing are persons of integrity, high moral character and education.

No New Machinery Necessary.

The National Board, said Mayor Canfield, reviews nearly sixty-five per cent of all pictures. If each state should have a board of censorship, with nearly fifty boards with different conceptions of art and morality, it can be readily seen that there will result a complicated and chaotic condition in the motion picture industry.

Without question, under the standard set by the National Board, censorship pictures have reached and are continuing to reach a higher and more wholesome moral tone and value. The board has set down a number of standards to guide it in its work.

GREEK DEFEAT IS COMPLETE

Retreating on Whole Front of Old Positions Hotly Pursued by Turks—Italy Seeks Mediation—Venice, April 6.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Constantinople, April 6.—Every hour gives fresh proof of the crushing defeat which the Greek army has suffered at the hands of the Turkish nationalist forces. The Greeks were outflanked on their left wing and forced to retreat on the whole line.

They are now falling back on their old positions east of Broussa, their right wing having been withdrawn to Karahissar. The Turks are in hot pursuit of the vanquished Hellenic forces.

London, April 6.—Italy has taken a diplomatic hand in the Turkish-Greek war with a view to bringing about mediation, according to advices from Constantinople and Rome. Count Storza, the Italian foreign minister, is reported to have joined the leading statesmen of Greece and Turkey in considering a proposal to the Allies looking to a settlement of the Turkish-Greek difficulties.

Paris, April 6.—Ex-Premier Venizelos, formerly Greece's strongest statesman, whose political career came to an abrupt end when Constantinople resumed the throne of the Hellenes, is reported to be hastening to the monarch's side to help him avert the crisis threatened as a result of the defeat of the Greek army by the Turks. Le Petit Journal learns it is rumored Venizelos is on the way to Athens from Nice to aid the king in rallying the Greek people for a new offensive.

SUNDAY CLOSING WAS ADVOCATED

By About Twenty-five Fruit and Vegetable Dealers of the City in Petition to Aldermen Requesting Sunday Closing Ordinance be Adopted.

A petition signed by about twenty-five of the fruit and vegetable dealers of Kingston was read by City Clerk Doremus at the regular monthly meeting of the common council Tuesday evening. The petition requested the aldermen to adopt an ordinance restricting the sale of goods on Sunday by all fruit and vegetable stores, and also restricting ice cream and drug stores, or any other lines of business from selling fruit and vegetables.

The petition was referred to the laws and rules committee. There were a number of dealers who had signed the petition present at the session, and also a few who had not signed, and while the council was in recess while the motor bus committee was considering the Proper matter, as stated elsewhere, the fruit dealers staged a little public hearing of their own in the outside corridor, while at times the conversational stream became very heated, no blows were struck.

WOODSTOCK ENTERTAINMENT.

By Kingston Players for Benefit of Disabled Soldiers.

The men and women of the St. James M. E. Church who gave such an exceedingly clever and successful presentation of "The Minister's Wife's New Bonnet," recently, have been persuaded to go to Woodstock this week and repeat the performance for the benefit of disabled soldiers of the World War who live in that immediate vicinity or elsewhere in Ulster county, especially the many severely shell-shocked men. It is hoped and expected that this will provide even more than entertainment, that it will lay the foundation for a helpful fund for these men whom to help in any way must be counted a sincere and grateful privilege by the people of the whole county.

The entertainment will be given at Firemen's Hall on Friday evening at 8 o'clock, the small admission of 25 cents being charged, the entertainers gladly giving their services.

It is hoped that the night will be a pleasant spring evening and that there will be several Kingston auto parties and also auto parties from other sections of the county in attendance.

Lecture On Dead Sea Tonight.

Dr. Putnam Cady, one of the few Americans to be made Fellows of the Royal Geographical Society of England, will lecture at the First Presbyterian Church this evening at 8 o'clock on "Personal Explorations on the Dead Sea." Dr. Cady, who is now pastor of this church, is regarded as one of the world's foremost investigators of that region and was the first to photograph the Dead Sea and the most important body of water on the globe. The lecture, which is to be under the auspices of the Sea's League of the church, will be illustrated by 24 lantern slides from pictures taken by Dr. Cady.

EXPLOSION FATAL TO SANDSBERRY

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, April 6.—Republican leaders of the senate today expressed gratification that the visit of Rene Viviani, former French premier, and now envoy to the United States, has resulted in crystallizing the avowed purpose of the majority of Republican senators and representatives to support the Knox resolution for peace with the Central Powers by congressional resolution.

Discussions Viviani has had with Republican senators regarding the senate's attitude toward both the league of nations and the Knox resolution can have left no doubt in his mind, they say, as to where the Republican leaders of the senate stand.

Some of the senators resent efforts of Viviani as the credited envoy of the French government to influence the foreign policy of both the administration and the senate, and pointed references to his activities will be made by his senatorial critics on the senate in the near future.

It has been pointed out to Viviani that the Knox measure is a simple "business proposition," entailing the resumption of American relations with the German and Austrian governments through regular diplomatic channels, as well as ending the still existing technical state of war between the United States and Germany and Austria which is seriously hampering American commercial, business and financial interests.

To this he is reported as conceding there is no answer.

Viviani has also been informed that the Knox resolution paves the way for the negotiation by the American government of commercial treaties with Germany and Austria, and of reciprocal arrangements for the amicable disposition of the property of German and Austrian nationals held in this country, and of the property of American nationals held in those countries.

How far these negotiations would proceed or how soon they might be undertaken by the state department cannot be determined until the Knox resolution is re-passed by congress, approved by President Harding, and then accepted by both Germany and Austria. But Republican leaders declare they are convinced the Knox measure, as the first step toward re-establishing peace in the country upon a genuine peace basis, will have a salutary effect not only upon this country's foreign relations, but upon its existing domestic conditions.

Thomas Whelan, who is also a superintendent at the Brewster works, was near Mr. Sandsberry when the explosion occurred but he was behind a door and was not injured by the force of the explosion. The damage to the loading house where the explosion happened will not exceed a few hundred dollars.

The remains were taken in charge by Undertaker Ernest A. Kelly pending the arrival of Mrs. Sandsberry who was notified by telegram of the death of her husband. As death occurred after a doctor had been in attendance it was not necessary to call the coroner.

Mrs. Sandsberry arrived in Kingston at eleven o'clock this morning and was met by Mr. Brewster and Undertaker Ernest A. Kelly. She arranged for the remains of her husband to be taken to Nantucket, where the funeral and interment will take place, and she will accompany the body there this evening.

GENERAL TO INSPECT CO. D

Tuesday evening, April 12, General Lincoln C. Andrews, chief supervising officer of the New York State Military Training Commission, will visit Kingston and make an inspection of Company D, 45th Regiment, Corps of Cadets of the state of New York. The inspection will take place at the army at 3 o'clock. Company D is also known as the First Technical Company.

General Andrews will be accompanied by his staff.

Company D, 45th Regiment, has quite a reputation all over the state and is the first and only company which completely outfitted itself. The members of the company took such interest in the drill that they purchased complete overseas outfits. Owing to the lack of funds from the state no uniforms are provided for the cadets and if they wish to be uniformed they must purchase their own outfit.

The public is invited to attend the drill and inspection at the army next Tuesday evening and see what has been accomplished by the boys during their short time at drill. The admission will be of course free.

General Andrews, the inspecting officer, was on General Pershing's staff in France and is a thorough soldier. He is a member of the advisory council at West Point and is the author of several military text books now used at West Point.

This is the first time in the history of the Military Training Commission that the general and his staff have personally inspected a single unit of boys.

Republican Senators Now Determined to Support Knox Resolution—Some Criticism Of French Envoy For Attempt To Meddle In Foreign Policy.

LLOYD-GEORGE ARRANGES MEETING BETWEEN MINERS AND MINE OWNERS

Astute British Premier Again Staves Off National Industrial Disaster—Transport and Rail Men Put Off Action Pending Result of Conference.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

London, April 6.—Premier Lloyd-George, master conciliator, once more staved off national disaster this afternoon when he got both the miners and the mine owners to accept his invitation to a joint conference with him in the hope of bringing them together.

The premier's move, which was his answer to a request from the miners' spokesman for another conference, came when the executive bodies of the Triple Alliance miners, transport workers and railway men were about to vote on the question of a general strike which would have put a total of more than three million workers idle and threatened the very vitals of the British state.

The transport workers had already announced their readiness to back the miners to the limit.

As a result of Lloyd George's eleventh hour move the Triple Alliance postponed final action.

London, April 6.—Revelations of an alleged plot for a revolt in Ireland, original meant to coincide with the opening of the British coal strike, opened this morning the critical day of the kingdom's industrial life.

Scotland Yard, it was announced, had gathered evidence showing the Sinn Feiners expected the coal strike negotiations to drag along until about April 15, for which date a revolution "on a grand scale" was being prepared.

Ammunition smuggled into Ireland from America, notably from Massachusetts, and from Germany, it was averred, was being hoarded by Sinn Feiners for the day of the uprising.

Upon the heels of this sensational news came the announcement that the transport workers, through their executive committee had declared their enthusiastic readiness to "give all assistance to whatever extent is needed to help the miners."

Violence is increasing in the coal fields some of which have become veritable battlefields. Serious disorders were reported from the Scottish fields, notably at Cowdenbeath in Fife.

Many casualties were incurred in a battle between strikers and police though the miners broke through a strong police cordon and repeatedly damaged the lighting plant of the town.

Disturbances were reported from many districts in Lancashire, where the striking miners renewed their attempts at intimidating the pumping crews. Shots were exchanged in a battle at Hamilton. No details as to casualties are given.

At the Hutton griff collieries, 400 striking miners armed with hammers and steel bars went on a sabotage rampage, smashing property to pieces.

The 10,000 troops which were reported to have arrived from Ireland to be distributed over the coal field areas do not seem to have taken a hand in the strike as yet; indeed confirmation of the report still is lacking.

Here in London, however, no doubt is left by the government that it proposes to show a strong military hand at the slightest sign of rioting. The capital vividly remembers its war time aspect. Thousands of troops in front line equipment are quartered at strategic points including the great Kensington Gardens, which have been closed to the public.

President Gosling of the Transport Workers' Union, in announcing the decision of the executive body to "assist the miners, said:

"We propose to go into conference with the railmen and miners for the purpose of deciding upon a course of action by the triple alliance. Our executive committee's decision was reached unanimously and which ends this message."

HIGHLAND MAN LOSES SUIT.

State Senator Verne A. Penney Action For Misrepresentation.

A verdict was rendered against Michael Penney, who lives at Highland and conducts a commission business in New York city, in a pending action brought by The People for misrepresentation of apples, which was tried before Justice J. Andrew Young and a jury in the supreme court at Poughkeepsie on Tuesday.

The state authorities claimed that Penney had sold several barrels of apples, "New York State A Grade," and that they had been found to be of inferior quality.

The action was brought to recover the penalty prescribed by law and also the damages for the apples sold. The jury returned a verdict against Penney for $50, plus $100 costs. The case was argued by Frank H. Remond of New York city.

WHITE HOUSE A THRIFTY HOME

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Washington, April 6.—Thrift has perched above the White House door.

Until President and Mrs. Harding moved into the White House it has always been the practice of the House Appropriations Committee to provide for the purchase of furniture for the private apartments of the president and his family. But, as an example of government economy, they have no intention of using a congressional appropriation for furnishing these apartments. Instead the furniture will come from the Hardings' Marion and Washington homes.

Give the average American earner an opportunity of furnishing a home lavishly with Oriental rugs, mahogany furniture, beautiful paintings, costly draperies and he will take it even though he may know that the funds, making this purchase possible and coming out of the public treasury, will place a hardship at the door of taxpayers. It is a difficult task to show the average earner that in the conduct of his own affairs and in the disbursement of his own earnings, he should practice thrift and economy.

Economy, like charity, should begin at home. It is easy enough to straddle a neighbor's fence and talk long and vigorously about plans and programs that, if followed by the "other fellow," would improve conditions but the real job is for individuals to begin a program of economy and thrift at home.

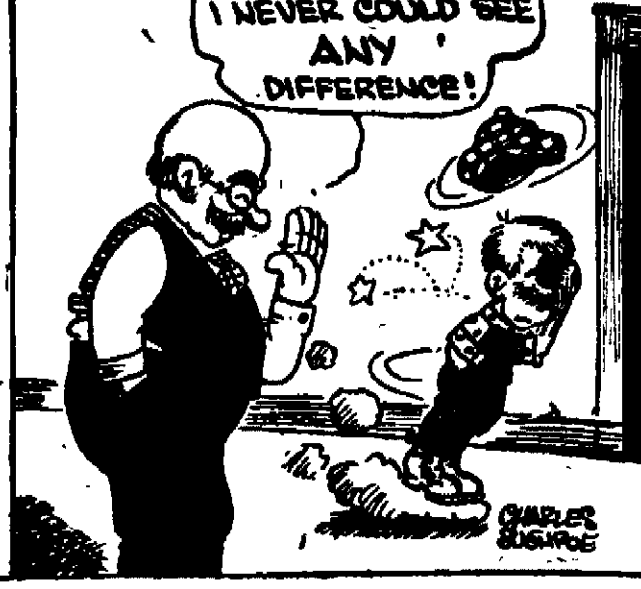

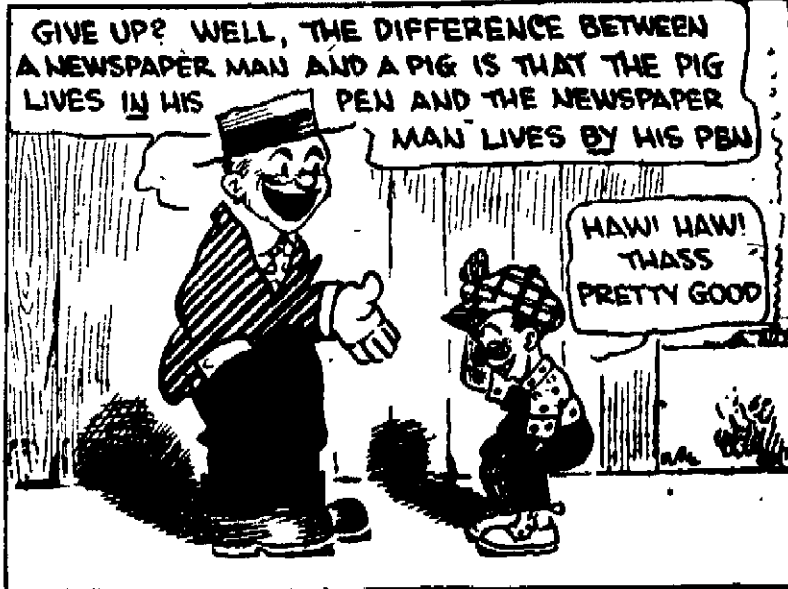

The United States Treasury Department, in carrying on the savings movement, is endeavoring to impress upon the mind of every American earner desiring sound advice, the advisability of beginning a program of thrift and economy at home. It urges that every earner make a budget and in it make allowance for regular saving and sound investment. It urges that whenever any individual makes an appropriation out of his own funds and for his own needs, he use the judgment of President and Mrs. Harding when they, appreciating the necessity of a program of economy in putting the business of our country back to normal, decided it unwise to spend the funds commonly provided by the House Appropriations Committee for the purchase of furniture when when this furniture might be brought from their Marion and Washington homes.

That every earner may begin saving at home, special savings securities have been issued by the United States Treasury Department. These securities—from the 25 cent stamp to the $1,000 Treasury Savings Certificate—are the best in the world. Talk with your postmaster about them.

IRISH MUNITIONS MADE IN U. S.

By Telegram to The Freeman. London, April 6.—Three big secret underground ammunition dumps have been discovered in Dublin, according to a despatch from that city today. Most of the ammunition boxes found bear markings of a Massachusetts firm. It is added, and as a result, the authorities are working today on the theory of a system of gun-smuggling to Ireland by American sympathizers through isolated ports on the Irish west coast where the Sinn Féiners have wireless stations. Clues indicating gun running operations from Germany also are being investigated.

He Got the Spirit

There's suburban home whose owner's principal delight is in keeping it epic and span. After dinner he and a guest were smoking on the front porch. The guest, after lighting his cigar, threw the burned match to the ground.

"Oh, I wouldn't do that, George," said the host.

"Why not?" asked the guest, surprised.

"It spoils the appearance of a place," was the answer. "It's just those little things that make a place look bad."

The guest smoked his cigar in silence for a minute. Then, without a word he got up from his chair walked down to the road and disappeared. He returned in a short while and his host asked:

"Why, where have you been, George?"

"Oh, I just went down to spit in the river," said George.—Everybody's.

PATRONS FOR KENNEDY EVENT

Just at this time we are having much wholesome enthusiasm aroused over the approaching musical memory contest, intended to be the beginning of a means of making our school children acquainted with musical masterpieces. It is equally worthy of note that not only the school children but all of the people of Kingston are soon to have an opportunity to hear a masterpiece of dramatic reading of the salient parts of Romeo and Juliet, and Henry VIII, something which has not happened in years, for the moving pictures do not give Shakespearean drama since so much depends upon the spoken text.

That this treat, wherein Charles Rann Kennedy, author of "The Servant in the House," and his wife are to appear at the high school auditorium on April 12th, is being profoundly appreciated, is evidenced by the daily additions to the number of patrons now well on toward seventy in number.

Today's new patrons are: A. Friend, McIntee Insurance Company, A. Friend, Dr. Mary Gage-Day, Postmaster William C. DeWitt, A. Friend, Mrs. C. H. Schoonmaker, Mrs. William E. Simmons.

BIG C. E. RALLY HERE APRIL 26

One of the most important rallies under the auspices of the Kingston Local Union of Christian Endeavor will be held in the Fair Street Reformed Church on Tuesday evening, April 26, when the speaker of the evening will be Dan Poling, author of the war book "Huts in Hell" and a number of other books, will be present and deliver the address.

The executive committee of the union will meet this evening at the Y. M. C. A. at 8 o'clock to complete plans for the rally. As Dr. Poling is a noted author, minister and orator, it is expected that there will be a record breaking attendance that evening to hear him.

John H. Baker of Mettachonts was arrested Tuesday afternoon by Officer Simpson on a charge of parking his car for fifteen minutes on the cross walk at North Front and Wall streets. The hearing will be held later.

Everett H. Harding, of Chicago, who was arrested by Secret Service agents charged with impersonating a government officer. Harding posed as a cousin of the president and as "Counting Warren's personal secretary." It is alleged that "Everett Harding" secured several Chicagoans and others on the strength of the fake relationship. He advertised a story that his sister Pearl had been invited to become a member of the household of President and Mrs. Harding.

Witnesses in the first city in America to adopt a motorcycle "fire engine." At a recent fire the cycle "engine" was given a test. The speedy "engine" equipped with eight extinguishers, and with its crew of two, reached the scene of the blaze long before the slow moving apparatus. With the extinguishers the two men put out the fire, which had been permitted to burn the low structure before the apparatus arrived, might have caused considerable damage. Another feature of the new "engine" is the ability to dash around corners and through narrow alleyways. It is always ready for use at a moment's notice.

MUSIC TEST FOR PUPILS FRIDAY

The is no little excitement in the public schools of the city over the coming elimination contest for the final Musical Memory Contest, the elimination contest to take place on Friday afternoon of this week.

All over the city the school children have been working hard and whether or not prizes or even honorable mention results from the contest, one thing is sure, hundreds of boys and girls in Kingston will have a familiar acquaintance with many musical masterpieces that otherwise they might never have had the privilege of knowing. Announcement of the high school plans will appear in another issue of The Freeman.

The rules governing the elimination contest will be as follows:—

1—A committee of three on which no public school teacher shall serve, will give the elimination contest in each of the elementary schools.

2—Ten identical selections chosen by this committee, will be used in all the schools, each selection to be started at the beginning and played one and one half minutes.

3—The contest will be held on Friday p. m., April 8, 1921, in the following order: School No. 7, one o'clock; 8, 6, 5, 2, 3, 4, 1. On leaving one school the committee will telephone the next school.

4—Pupils should be assembled and supplied with one single sheet of No. 1 paper and lead pencil with name and school on first line, on arrival of committee.

5—The photograph will be operated by the principal or one of his teachers, Superintendent Michael to be official timekeeper.

6—Records must be played in same order in all schools.

ZION CHURCH REVIVAL

"Save The Boy," Is Plea of Evangelist Woods.

"Save The Boy," was the plea of Evangelist Woods at the revival meeting at the Franklin street A. M. E. Zion church, Tuesday evening, another large audience being present. The Evangelist was looking unusually pleasant Tuesday, it developing that one of the congregation had presented him with a large bouquet of flowers. The theme of his discourse at the meeting was "Will thou be made whole?" He said:

"If we are to be anything with God we must take on the same old religion that our grandmothers had, we must go back to eating cornbread and cabbage. Whether or not, you must be willing to obey the voice and teachings of Jesus. People sometimes have peculiar thoughts about what the preacher has to say, but thoughts that are not in conformity with the wishes of God are of the devil, and God judges a man's thought as well as his actions. You know the devil is a strategist of the first order; that he would deceive the very elect if he could. Jesus was doing service to his Father and carrying out His wishes when he told that poor impotent man to take up his bed and walk. He never told him to walk to a crap game, to a dance hall, or to a booze shop, but should go out and do him a service. Jesus never did call a lazy man. I could stay here and quote you incidents for an hour. How can any father save his family? How can any father save his boy whose whereabouts he doesn't know? Let us save the boys. The trouble today in the churches is simply this: there are too many crippled Christians that need go down into the pool and wash."

The Newburgh A. M. E. Zion Church will unite with the Franklin Street Church on Thursday, also the St. Mark's A. M. E. Church. The entire membership of the Franklin Street church will be present. Sufficient seats will be provided to care for all who come.

WILLIAM CUNNINGHAM NOT "HARD"

Wood Men in Dry Town Promptly Acquitted by Jury.

Under county attorneys who may be called on for jury duty in hard cases may be interested to know what their brothers do in Schenectady county, where riders of various devices of hardness in past years formed one of the regular attractions of jail.

For more than a year the people of Schenectady county have been talking about the Cunningham case. Attorney Cunningham conducted the Farmers' Board at Middleburgh. He and his two sons were indicted more than a year ago for selling hard cider. The jury found the Cunningham boys guilty of selling hard cider for perjury, been staying with Adam Watson and his family.

When the case was tried, Cunningham recounted his former testimony and swore that about the time in question he had been on a three weeks' spree that before going to the hotel he drank two pitchers of hard cider, in which two pitchers had been placed in a "kick," but at the hotel he had been served with seven cups in which he had poured Jamaica gin.

The jury found the Cunningham boys guilty of selling hard cider for perjury, been staying with Adam Watson and his family for some time and returned to his home.

KINGSTON, N. Y., APRIL 6, 1921.

According to the school authorities in Westfield, Mass., parents there are giving their children sugar lumps soaked in ether to reduce their appetites and lower the cost of living. The saddest part of the story is that the children know what the doctor's sugar lumps are intended for.

The news comes by way of Europe that an American State legislator introduced a bill providing that a man found guilty of snoring be sentenced to live several months with his mother-in-law. No doubt the American legislator was jocular, but Europe, which now watches this country of snorers very closely, seems to have taken him seriously.

Members of the American Legion are said to be disturbed to find that 800 milk cows from South Dakota are about to be shipped from Baltimore to Germany and that this is not the first shipment of its kind. They think such cows are more needed in the countries devastated by the Germans, from which the Germans stole hundreds of thousands of cows, very few of which they have so far been compelled to send back to their owners.

This is bad news to come out of Mr. Bryan's own state in piping prohibition times. A Lincoln dispatch relates that Governor McKelvie of Nebraska has ordered the suspension of County Attorney R. J. Millard of Cedar county, "on a mass of evidence, including a report from State Deputy Sheriff Fulton, that Millard was suffering from delirium tremens while trying bootlegging cases on March 22."

Never be afraid to give the other fellow credit for having some brains. He may be willing to do as much for you. Then, too, never be afraid to tell a man he has done a good job if he has. Flowers are appreciated by all of us just as much before we die as they are subsequently. Kind words and flowers are the sweetest things in the world. There are times when an encouraging word is worth more than anything else on earth and there are occasions as between money and a kind word money has absolutely no value whatever.

While there has been much talk about reorganizing or abolishing the housing commission, Governor Miller has not decided on just what he will recommend. Nevertheless he says that he believes that the sport should be kept clean and not commercialized. This is the crux of the whole matter. To make it a sport is one thing but to commercialize it is quite another. The governor's attitude is the same as that of those who like good sports but who oppose utilizing them as money making schemes. The greed in matters of this sort is what kills the game. The people are awaiting with interest to learn just what the governor may suggest.

THE CITIZEN'S "CASTLE."

The original purpose of prohibition with the majority of its advocates was merely to abolish the saloon and stop the sale of liquor in other ways. Accordingly, when the Volstead act was before congress two years ago the moderates opposed the invasion of the privacy of the home which was tacitly authorized by the original draft of the bill, and the protest continued until there was written into the law an explicit provision that no warrant should be issued for the forcible entry of the citizen's "castle" except upon affidavit that the premises were being used for the illicit sale of intoxicating beverages. Now it is proposed to "tighten up" the Volstead law by eliminating or altering this provision, but the movement is expected to encounter the same opposition which was effective two years ago. Indeed, it is said that the "tightening" likely to take place will be an improvement of the clause protecting the citizen in his home so that it can not be misinterpreted or evaded, instead of the removal of the clause itself with a view to make prohibition more drastic.

In this prediction, however, the odds may be in favor of the thought. It is quite possible that the law may be made more drastic, providing for a house to house inspection with a view to put an end to the brewing even for domestic use only. But in that case the chances and resources of the government will be taxed to the utmost, for even to secure a measure of success would require frequent search of every home. And it is obvious that one of the consequences would be a bitter resentment against the governing powers cherished by at least a half of the population of this country.

AGRICULTURE

You know the little busy bee improves each shining minute. So why not keep two hives or three? There may be something in it.

Uncle Ab says that if we were happy all the time, happiness would lose its flavor.

Even gardens shouldn't loaf. Lettuce and radishes may be grown between root crop rows.

When it comes to pulling together for profit a flock of hens may be stronger than an ox team.

The time when thrift counts most is when prices are coming down and the dollar is really beginning to be worth a dollar.

Many farmers are deciding to repair farm machinery because machinery prices are still very high as compared with reduced prices of farm crops.

"Chronicles of the home-town history" is what a poor bulletin from the state college at Ithaca calls the weekly newspaper. Ask for F 155; it's free.

The housewife has enough to do without lugging water. Yet a study of a good dairy region in Central New York shows that on 43 per cent of the farms water must be carried into the house.

BACK YARDS AND WINDOW BOXES

On Tuesday afternoon the members and friends of the Ulster Garden Club were privileged to hear how one brave little woman, tackling the problem of the wretched New York City back yards had already made a dent in that monster metropolis where flowers and vegetables now take the place of rubbish and trash in cans for vegetables.

The meeting was held at St. John's Parish House which had been made delightfully spring-like with a long porch box of crimson geraniums, vines and "Dusty Miller," a window box of salmon colored geraniums, blooming myrtle and violets; great bowls of golden Forsythia blooms; garden box of ferns, and in addition, pictures of "before" and "after" gardens of New York City.

In opening the meeting, Mrs. Everett Fowler welcomed the guests in the name of the Ulster Garden Club, and explained that following the civic betterment work already undertaken by the club in the shape of the school gardens, they now hoped to do something to help in the transformation of unsightly back yards, or where there are no back yards, in the introduction of the "window box."

In order to the better know how to proceed along these lines, the club was favored in that Miss Frances Peters, president of the City Gardens Club of New York City, would tell what had been accomplished there.

Miss Peters told most interesting details of the institution of the City Gardens Club as a sort of by-product of the Women's Municipal League of New York City, and of the inspiration to form such a club from her own realization of the ugliness of many of the back yards which yet had possibilities as little beauty spots.

In order to prove this possibility, Miss Peters described the securing of a certain back yard on East 28th street where a small appropriation for the work having been secured, the paving stones were taken up, and the space converted into flower beds with garden branches, a pergola, etc.

In this work they were greatly aided by the Horticultural Society. While the City Gardens Club of New York City began with two members and 25 in the treasury, it now has 500 members and gives annual exhibits of its reclaimed back yards, its window box schemes, etc. Later pictures of these gardens were seen by those present.

Other work accomplished had been little rock gardens, real cases in the arid wastes of New York City's brick and stone and cement; of street tree planting; of the planting of unoccupied lots, etc. At present they are planning to beautify the barren court yard in the center of the great and beneficent Bellevue Hospital which may once again come to deserve its name, and where hundreds of convalescents will be unpeckably grateful for flowers, shrubbery and grass to look upon.

Work with the school children in helping them to have not only school gardens, but if no home gardens are available, window boxes, was said to be a means of training the children to have that love for growing plants which would be the best safeguard of the parks of the city.

At last, but perhaps not quite least, Miss Peters proved how the beautifying of even a New York City home by adding a pretty backyard or roof garden greatly increased the commercial value of the property.

And again it was stated that this back yard or window box idea among the school children was proving a decided Americanizing factor among the foreign-born families of Greater New York.

Miss Peters was given a most hearty vote of thanks for her address.

Samples of window boxes were on exhibition, made and for sale by our local dealers. The porch box and window box were prepared as was the one stand by Valentin Burgevin's sons to whom words of appreciation and thanks were extended, while Miss Aldane called attention to the fact that the head of the parks and playground commission in New York City is Julius Burgevin, a brother of the Burgevin Sons of Kingston.

At the close of the address the club members and their guest of honor, Miss Peters, repaired to the home of Mrs. DeWitt Rouse on Fair street, where Mrs. Rouse and Mrs. Francis Higginson, as hostesses, served delectable refreshments. The tea table which was beautifully adorned with a France roses and pink carnations, was presided over by Mrs. Howard Stoughton and Mrs. A. T. Clearwater.

Steam Deflects Lightning.
It would seem that a building 9,000 feet above the sea level should be protected by lightning rods, but the astronomical observatory at Mount Etna has not, and does not need such protection. The observatory is near the summit of the volcano, and the stream of vapor constantly rising from the crater acts as a natural conductor, draining the electricity out of the clouds, so that lightning is seldom seen there.

At all events the "pipe" is inseparable from our vision of Raleigh, and we know Columbus saw "cigar smoking" years before him. Unfortunately discoverer, indeed, Columbus found a new continent, and another gave it his name. He discovered smoking, and the name of another is linked to the romance of it.

"OLE VIRGINNY" HER INSPIRATION

A very interesting sketch of the life and musical career of Kingston's noted soprano singer Mrs. William H. Rieser who has so successfully sung as a record artist for the Columbia Grafonola people was made possible from an interview with Mrs. Rieser since she has added this to her already long list of musical successes.

Born and "raised" in "Ole Virginny" the singer said that she could best sing with all her heart and the best of her musical ability the feelings of the poor old colored man who wanted to be carried back to Ole Virginny; for again and again the artist had been deeply moved by the same feeling.

Born a Virginian near the close of the civil war, Mrs. Rieser expressed the idea that she counted it a privilege to come before the public and voice the spirit of her native state, honored as the land of Stonewall Jackson and General Sheridan, and for a time as the home of James K. Polk during his administration as president of the United States.

Mrs. Rieser's musical education began at her childhood home, Winchester, Virginia, when at the age of six years she received her first instruction from John H. Hewitt, the noted composer of that time. Later she studied with Marguerite De Pabstmann of the Paris Conservatory of Music (France), and also of Peabody Institute, Baltimore. She then came north and after receiving instruction with the then famous tenor Carl Alvers, Mrs. Rieser was so greatly favored as to be taken as a pupil of the world famous dramatic soprano of the Metropolitan Opera, Madame Fursch Madi. After her appearance as a pupil of Fursch Madi, the New York Press commented upon the similarity in the voices of pupil and teacher. Fully prepared to enter the operatic field, Mrs. Rieser was prevented by illness, and when able to resume her musical career preferred not to re-enter the realm of opera. Since then Mrs. Rieser has devoted her wonderful talents to the service of her Maker and to charity as the people of Kingston so well know.

The singer expressed the opinion that she had inherited a goodly share of her musical talent and temperament as one of her ancestors was a court musical director to the king of Bavaria, while her father who was of Russian parentage possessed a rarely fine tenor voice.

Saw First Tobacco Smoke.
It was Christopher Columbus who discovered tobacco, and he did it on his first voyage in 1492, according to a little brochure which George C. Dempsey of Boston, has prepared for distribution among the members of the Algonquin club. Mr. Dempsey's account says: "He was not only the first European to report tobacco, but he saw the natives smoking rolls of it—cigars—to light which they carried burning brands in their hands. Popular impression makes Sir Walter Raleigh, the discoverer. History discloses the fact that the distinguished nobleman was closely and unfortunately identified with the fragrant herb, but at the same time shows that he did not begin to play his dramatic part on the world's stage till years after the great admiral had quit it."

passing judgment upon the quality and suitability of motion pictures for exhibition purposes, and then to make itself the reflector of true public and moral opinion.

"We also found," said Mayor Canfield, "that indecent, improper and immoral films can be eradicated by the same methods as are used against indecent, improper and immoral books or plays. The penal law of the state contains a provision which is drastic and offers protection and which has the same application to motion pictures as to plays. Any person who presents an indecent, obscene or immoral picture may be arrested and prosecuted."

The National Board of Review, he pointed out, has been far more successful in its efforts to constructively advance the standard of pictures than any political state board could be.

Why Not Consider Grown-ups?
The committee of mayors, said Mayor Canfield, recommended to every community, however, the adoption of two ordinances, one relating to motion picture advertising, which would prevent highly sensational and misleading and indecent posters, and the other providing a system whereby the local community conscience would be permitted to assert itself.

The latter ordinance provides that where a picture is intended to be shown, which has not been approved by the National Board, written notice of intention to exhibit it shall be filed, and a selection is made, and the commissioner or chief of police may require it to be exhibited to him in the first instance.

The regulatory ordinance would also sanction special young people's performances of select pictures where the same are arranged under proper auspices.

"It is recognized," said Mayor Canfield, "that films cannot be censored or regulated from the viewpoint of children, as only a small percentage of motion picture audiences consist of children under 16. Some pictures, however, are approved by the National Board of Review only for adults, and are exhibited to both adults and children, and therefore cause criticism. Such special performances would furnish the children a type of entertainment of a proper and suitable nature, and the small minority would in such a way be provided for without interfering with the programs which are and must be designed primarily for adults."

Mental Capacity of Censors.
It is desirable, said Mayor Canfield, that we should have persons to review and criticize who understand the principles of artistic construction and aesthetic criticism, and who have the mental capacity and the intellectual ability and judgment to apply the principles of aesthetics to the study, criticism and production of motion pictures.

"It requires persons whose minds are not emotionally hysterical but those who can eliminate to a great degree the personal equation, and who possess a high moral and cultural sense. The National Board of Review includes persons of education, culture and refinement who can never be obtained in the personnel of a force of subordinates under a state censorship board. If motion pictures are to continuously progress toward a higher level of morality and art, they must have the benefit of such criticism that is constructive and builds up, and not merely such censorship that involves elimination and denunciation."

The reviewer, he said, should have the power to understand the science and philosophy of beauty, and the power of apprehension and imagination, the beauties of nature, art and literature and artistic construction and criticism. He should also understand the doctrine of man's moral duties, embracing his duties toward himself, his fellowmen and his God, and have a keen intuition and perception of right and wrong, and possess moral impulse and sense, with the proper mental attributes to apply the judgment to things moral.

In conclusion, Mayor Canfield said, without these qualifications, being possessed by the censors, censorship would be unfair, un-American, destructive, futile and without any beneficial or elevating effect. It cannot be expected that there can be found anywhere the perfect analytical mind or personified virtue, but censorship by subordinate employees is not comparable with the review of motion pictures by a set of men and women who have elevated themselves to a high station and position in life by education, culture, training and experience, and who have studied and who understand and who love art, morality and aesthetics.

Indian Rites Dying Out.
The Hopi Indians, more than any other tribe, have long-cherished forms, says a correspondent. Still here in the isolation of the gleaming desert and mesa country one may witness still the even dance, the snake dance and other picturesque ceremonials which the influence of the white man has as yet little changed. Among all of the Pueblo people there has been preserved much of the old Indian culture. This is easily understood when one considers the character of the Pueblo. Dwelling in ancestral villages, country after country, avoiding war when possible, and in their remote mesa homes leading even the disintegrating influence of the white man, these interesting tribes have preserved some magnificent art, poetry and religious sentiments which are now in danger of extinction, just as the white student of Indian life is beginning to appreciate their value.

Wines in France.
From France, the Father of Vinticulture, comes the dark, sparkling wine on the continent known to the east, where France's famous wine is the American favorite. From the French brand we can readily discern, on a hot day, the city surrounded by the vines and surrounded by the vine and the champagne towers of the ancient cathedrals and palaces.

Beauty in Old Amsterdam.
Canals of Dutch City Have Caused It to Be Named the Venice of the North.

Amsterdam is notable for two reasons: above all others, its old canals and its old architecture. It is a town in a "Waterland" in Holland. Truly it has been called the Venice of the North, but very different is its water and its atmosphere from the city of Venice.

There is a beauty of safety and a beauty of security, and Amsterdam is a town where the water is the best friend of the traveler. The water is the best friend of the traveler.

ST. LOUIS TEAMS
BEST BATTERSBy Telegraph to The Freeman.
New York, April 6.—A pair of dark horses and an outside chance to grab one of the pennants.

This is the baseball situation in St. Louis, where the fans are so used to disappointments they have long since ceased to make predictions.

With the baseball season due to crack open a week from today, it is timely to record that the Browns and Cardinals are very much in the dark horse class—teams that seem destined to command wholesome respect from the best clubs in both leagues.

Of the two, the chances of the Browns look a trifle the better, though they will have to face stiffer opposition in New York and Cleveland than any National League club could give them.

Lee Fohl's team is in great condition. Fohl has a club with terrific batting power. It led the American League in 1920 with a team average of .293. Its hitting this season promises to be just as strong as ever. When the Browns must show is better pitching and snappier fielding.

The Browns' regular line-up will probably find Jacobson, Williams and Tobin patrolling the gardens; Slater at first; Gleason, a newcomer, at second; Gerber at short and Smith at third, with Severeid and Billings to do the receiving. Shocker, Davis, Sothoron, Burwell, Cullon and Bayne will be depended upon to shoulder the pitching burden and in the case of the Browns pitching is going to determine their position at the close of the season.

The Cardinals' lineup is uncertain even at this late date, because Milton Stock has refused to report. Manager Rickey is also undecided about his outfield.

Like the Browns the Cardinals should show great batting power and should Stock come to time Rickey could soon solve his infield problem. Fournier will play first for Rickey. Janvyn or Torporcer, probably the former, will play second base if Ormsby is kept on third because of Stock's absence. Johnny Lavin will be at short stop. The outfield jobs are between Mann, Muller, Heathcote, Schultz and Shotton. Behind the bat will be Clemens, Dillroyer and McCarthy. In the box Rickey has Schupp, Doak, Haines, Goodwin, May, Sherdel, Walker, Peltica and Riviere the last three named, newcomers of exceptional promise who may give the Cardinal staff the balance it needs.

Like the Browns, the Cardinals were the batting champs of their league last year. They are bound to be "bad actors" with the bludgeons once again.

There's never any telling what a ball club will do if it once gets going. Look back a couple of seasons to the Braves of 1914 and you can realize why the Browns and Cardinals have that decided dark horse complexion.

WOMEN GAMBLERS

Plead Names Kept Secret When Arrested.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
New York, April 6.—Eleven women and five men were arrested early today when police raided a fashionable apartment, just off Broadway, and caught the richly dressed women, all wearing many jewels, surrounded by many piles of poker chips and cards.

They all gave fictitious names and begged the police to keep the news of their arrests from their husbands. They became panic stricken and wept, when detectives were admitted after giving a secret password. They were charged with disorderly conduct.

Paragon Tells a Record.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Baltimore, April 6.—The Paragon Canal toll collected during March amounted to $1,365,225. This is the greatest monthly amount collected in the history of the canal.HESITATE TO EXPOSE SLACKERSBy Telegraph to The Freeman.
Washington, April 6.—The army of "slackers" who were due for exposure by the publication of official arm records, will receive a further stay probably, because of the belief of officials that there were erroneously included in the lists the names of some who served honorably.

Secretary of War Weeks's formal request of the department of justice for an opinion upon the legality of making the lists public today was given personal consideration by Attorney General Daugherty.

Attorney General Daugherty, after conference with Assistant Attorney General Goff, in special charge of the matter, said he doubted that ample authority exists for publication of the lists, in the face of the fact that the list have been carefully checked by the war department.

He takes the position that while the army authorities have exercised the utmost diligence in verifying the records, there still remains the possibility that many names have been included through lack of information of the men enumerated.

"It would be a terrible thing to brand any man on that list as a slacker, if that man gave his services in the war against the enemy," said the attorney general.

"In my state of Ohio, and in many other states, young men left the United States, joined Canadian or other allied troops, and performed heroic service. They may have been killed in action or their whereabouts may be now known. There is the possibility that many men in that class have unfortunately been placed upon these records. Many say it would be unjust in such cases to publish to the world that they had shirked duty to their country in time of war."

Attorney General Daugherty's opinion very frankly expressed, was that the department of justice must proceed with caution before authorizing the publication of the army lists, pending a further study of the question.

MISS STILLMAN FOUND.

Visiting School Chum's Home in Indiana.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Elkhart, Ind., April 6.—The mystery concerning the whereabouts of Miss Anne Stillman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Stillman, principals in the latest sensational divorce case, appeared to have been solved today with the admission of Herman G. Keays that Miss Stillman is visiting at the Keays home here.

Keays said that Miss Stillman is spending her spring vacation from school visiting with Miss Elizabeth Keays, his daughter.

Keays denied reports that were current yesterday that Miss Stillman had been in seclusion at the country home of Harold F. McCormick, of Chicago, at Island Lake, Wis. He declared Miss Stillman came to Elkhart on March 23, and had been at the Keays home continuously since then.

Miss Stillman and Miss Keays are pupils of the Western School, Midway, Conn. They came together last summer on a tour of Europe. Keays' father, who works as a THICK PROSPECTS GOOD.

Catches Reported On Opening Day—Season Closes August 31. Catfish streams are answering appeals of the sportsmen and are yielding trout of good size to the skill and careful fishermen. Several satisfactory catches were reported for the opening day, last Monday, but on Sunday there were a few good catches because the water was too shallow for successful fishing. The trout season in the Catskills from the first Saturday of April to the last day of August, during which time there are no restrictions as to days or hours of the day when they may be caught. The warm weather of the past few days will do much to make the season better for fishing and the prospects for the coming season are good.

Wounds of War, Suffered by German Army, Reappear

London—Numerous marks of war, scars and wounds which the German soldiers in occupied territory are gradually coming to light and in many cases leading their way back to their old lives. The German papers publish the story of a cache of German war wounds which the police have found in the Transylvanian home of the father of a civilian Hungarian officer.

Ninety-two well known paintings, eight tanks and two cars were found at the home of a mine manager, who said they had been given him by his son on his return from the war. The son was an officer in the Hungarian artillery, and had fought on the Cambrai front. The objects found were found to have been taken from the chambers of the Prince de Chimay, near Cambrai, and were returned to their owner. Some of the pictures, including works of Joseph Dargy, Millet and Van der Helst had been hacked out of their frames and badly damaged.

MELONS WEIGH 110 POUNDS

Grew to Mammoth Size in Egypt, According to United States Consular Report.

Washington.—One hundred and ten pound watermelons! They have 'em in Egypt. Consular reports say so, and consuls never err. But they keep 'em all at home. There is no export business.

The consul at Alexandria noted the melons in the market there, "all weighing from ten to 110 pounds and varying in price from 30 cents to $1.50."

He also noted that, while they were just "watermelons," they had been given funny names, such as "battikh" and "nims" and "yaffawi," and that only two melons grow to the plant.

Long Chain of Family Grandmothers Broken

Arkadelphia, Ark.—A chain of grandmothers without parallel, in this section, at least, has been broken by the passing of Mrs. Elizabeth Eliza Rites, 82.

Before her death, two small children of Mrs. Eliza Hanson, her great-granddaughter, had six living grandmothers of whom two were great-great-grandmothers, two were great-grandmothers and two were just plain grandmothers. The eldest of the Hanson children is 3 1/2 years of age. Thus there were at one time six living generations with less than seventy-two years separating the youngest from the eldest.

The Hanson children had been their old grandmothers, also mother, four great uncles, two great-aunts, four great-grand uncles and four great-grand aunts and forty-second cousins, but no first cousins.

HARD PLACE TO GET EDUCATION

United States Has Surprising Number of Illiterates, Say Congressional Investigators.

Millions of Immigrants in Country Can Neither Speak Nor Read English—Committee Finds American Teachers Are Incompetent.

Washington, D. C.—The United States of America is one of the hardest places in the civilized world in which to get a good education, in the opinion of a committee of the house which has been investigating the question.

A fourth of the men of fighting age in the United States are illiterates, many children never get adequate schooling, many of the teachers are incompetent. There are millions of immigrants in the country who can neither speak nor read English, and many negro children never see the inside of a classroom. Thousands of schools are closed because no teacher can be obtained for the miserable salaries offered.

This disturbing picture of education in America is contained in the report of the house committee on education on the Towner bill, and abundant proof of its truth is contained in the hearings which were held in connection with the bill.

This report is surely one of the most startling indictments of our civilization which has ever issued from Capitol Hill.

Facts Which Convinced Them. Here, briefly, are some of the facts which brought the congressmen to this frame of mind.

According to the census of 1910, there were in this country 5,500,000 persons ten years of age or older who could not read or write, and the committee does not believe that conditions have improved since then. In addition to these, there were 3,500,000 persons who could not read or write English, making a total of 9,000,000 in the land of the free who were no more qualified to exercise the right of the franchise than so many Australian bushmen. The surgeon general's report showed that of the men called to service between the ages of twenty-one and thirty-one, nearly 25 per cent were practically illiterate. This means that a fourth of the young manhood of the country, which is its main reliance in peace and in war, is to all intents and purposes in a state of barbarism. Former Secretary of the Interior Lane estimates that the annual cost of illiteracy to the United States is $325,500,000. The director of the bureau of mines states that if all of the miners could read and speak English a thousand lives a year would be saved.

The committee emphatically refutes the idea that illiteracy is confined to the South, and to out-of-the-way sections. It shows that while Georgia has 88,000 illiterates, New York has 400,000, and that Pennsylvania has more of them than Alabama. Neither does the idea hold good that the illiterates are chiefly negroes. There are a million more white illiterates than colored.

Of the 15,000,000 foreign-born in the United States, the committee says that 6,000,000 cannot read or write English, and that 2,000,000 cannot read or write any language.

Luck Decides Education.

The committee says that getting an education in the United States is largely a matter of luck, that the opportunity is not equal.

"In the South a large number of the negro children never see the inside of a schoolhouse," it asserts. "In the North there is hardly a city that has adequate school facilities for all its children."

The committee finds that in physical education our schools have failed even worse than in mental education.

The "prevost marshal general's report revealed the startling fact that more than one-third of the men examined for military service in the late war were disqualified by reason of physical disability," it reports. "It also stated that 80 per cent of these young men could have qualified had they been taught the simplest rules of hygiene and health. It was ignorance, gross ignorance, that in the vast majority of cases was the cause of their incompetence."

The committee finds that American teachers are utterly incompetent. That 100,000 of them are less than 20 years old, that 20,000 of them have no education beyond the eighth grade, that 200,000 of them have less than a high school education, and that 300,000 of them have no professional training whatever. It finds that the average salary paid teachers in this country is less than the wages paid scrub women or ditch diggers.—Frederic J. Baskin in Chicago Daily News.

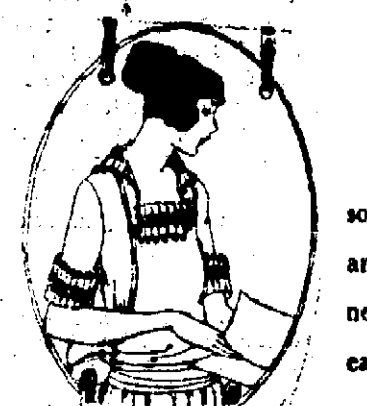

Sawed Off Limb He Set On

Barrie Creek, Ark.—Fourteen-year-old, a Green, twenty-two years old, was cutting down a tree in front of his boarding house. Instead of starting at the bottom, Peter climbed up on a branch and proceeded to saw it off between himself and the trunk. At the hospital, where he was taken, bleeding and bruised, examination proved that his worst injury is a fractured arm.

Natives of Guam Enlighten Marine; Disagree With the Theories Put Forward by Darwin.

The theory that he had sprung from some remote protoplasmic organism, that his twenty-times-great-grandfather was a white-haired hobo in the wilds of Abyssinia and other near-barbarian countries, were all regarded by Surgeon John Burrows of the marine corps as so much "junk." Still, his mind was never at rest.

The sergeant re-enlisted after the war and was ordered to Guam. The other day a letter was received at the marine corps recruiting headquarters. It came from Surgeon Burrows in Guam.

"At last," he stated, "I have discovered where my ancestors have come from."

The sergeant explained that natives of the island had enlightened him. In accordance with the origin of man, they said that everything in the world was derived from a certain rock on the island of Guam, which first became known, then a stone, and gave birth to all men. From this island men were scattered all over the world. They traveled their language and talked like birds without understanding one another nor knowing what they said.—Fortland Oregonian.

LATINS FAVOR THE AIRPLANE

South America Wild Over Flying. According to Opera Singer Just Returned From Tour.

South America has caught the aerial fever hard, according to Madam Grace Fjorde, just returned from a grand opera tour of the South American republics.

"In Lima, where I sang in the palace at a concert arranged by President Leguia, I learned the sick young men of Peru all own airplanes in which they daily fly out and back from the capital city to their haciendas," she said. "The President's son told me he shortly intended to make a flight to the United States, crossing Ecuador, the Panama canal, Mexico, Central America, Cuba and Haiti, and even offering to the ships, are advertised by dealers dropped from flying machines."

Madam Fjorde is the first woman to fly over Lima. She went on with Captain Moore, an American, who is the head of the Curtiss flying school there.

The sister continent Brazil comes naturally to the art of flying and is the home of Santos Dumont, the pioneer aviator. In a few weeks Fred Lindbergh, New York banker, who owns extensive platinum properties in the upper Amazon region beyond Brazil, expects to lead an expedition in a special thousand mile flight over the Andes. This aerial excursion will start from Panama and use a plane equipped for nine passengers. Engineers, pharmacologists and aviators will be in the party.

Very Old Game

One of the oldest games in America, in the playing of which women have been used, is to be seen, says the American Forestry Magazine of Washington. It originated with Indians in primitive times and was widely known among the tribes of the Northwest, United States and southern Canada at the time of the earliest exploration. The Indians called the game "backgammon," but the French named it in French, which name it retained.

CHARGES FOLLOW MILLER'S DEMAND

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Albany, N. Y., April 6.—Governor Miller today filed charges against State Hospital Commissioners Frederick A. Higgins and Charles W. Higgins who yesterday were told by the governor at a public hearing why they should not be removed.

The governor's demands are based on the following grounds:

"Inefficiency in the performance of the duties imposed upon you by law as a member of the state hospital commission."

"Unwillingness to cooperate with other branches of the state government in bringing about efficient and economical administration of institutions under the direction, control or management of the state hospital commission."

"Promulgating inaccurate and misleading statements tending to discredit the efforts of other branches of the state government to promote efficient and economical administration of the state service."

Both commissioners were in conference today with several members of the legislature, who are close personal friends and political advisers on whether they will fight the governor or resign. Commissioner Higgins said he was not yet ready to make a statement, but one might be given out later in the day.

Although state hospital commissioners are constitutional officers and have to be appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate, they can be removed by the governor for cause, without senate concurrence. Removal of some of the other incumbents of state constitutional officers can only be done after a trial before the senate.

Should Mr. Higgins and Dr. Higgins decide to fight as some of their friends, it is understood, have been advising them, the governor could either give a hearing himself or appoint a commissioner to take the evidence and report his findings with recommendations.

LONGYEAR BUS

The motor bus committee of the common council at the session Tuesday evening reported in favor of granting the petition of Stanley Longyear to run a motor bus line between Woodstock and Kingston. He was also given permission to make deliveries of milk to the creamery on Down street, but his application to stop at the railroad stations and ferry was denied, and he is allowed to stop only at the motor bus terminals.

Daniel G. Aber of Walden filed an application to operate a bus line from Ellenville to Kingston. President Dittus referred the application to the motor bus committee, and a public hearing will be held later. Alderman Martin's resolution calling for a public hearing next Tuesday in the matter was defeated by a vote of 10 to 2.

WILBUR AVENUE
PETITION FILED

Alderman Purvis Calls Attention To That Street—Other Aldermen Present Enough Resolutions To Keep B. P. W. Busy All Summer.

Alderman Purvis of the Thirteenth ward Tuesday night introduced in the council a petition signed by 230 residents and taxpayers of Wilbur avenue and adjacent streets calling attention to the condition of the avenue. The petition read:

"We the undersigned residents and taxpayers on Wilbur avenue and intersecting streets, do hereby petition your honorable body—the board of public works—that at your next meeting you consider the feasibility of repairing Wilbur avenue. It is the sense of the petitioners that the stone tramway now forming a part of the roadbed be removed as it is in a dilapidated condition, and a macadam to be traveling public. If this tramway is removed a proper grade could then be established which is now impossible with the tramway in its present condition. Trusting that you receive our petition with due respect and that you will grant us that which we consider just and right, we remain."

President Dittus referred the petition to the board of public works. The following resolutions in regard to street repairs were then introduced and referred to the board of public works:

By Alderman Purvis—That an incandescent light be placed on Hamilton street.

Alderman Purvis—That sign be placed at Gilead street and Wilbur avenue so that merchants would know where street was in order to make deliveries.

Alderman Warren—That all motor bus petitions granted by council be rescinded if petitioner did not take matter up with public service commission within the thirty days specified.

Alderman Kirchner—That an incandescent light be placed on German street.

Alderman Kirchner—That holes in Hone street be repaired.

Alderman Macholdt—That Lavan street be repaired.

Alderman Macholdt—That incandescent light be placed on west end of Staples street.

Alderman Macholdt—That west end of Staples street be repaired.

Alderman Parish—That catch basin at Pierpont street and Hasbrouck avenue be lowered.

Alderman Lemister—That Moore street be repaired.

Alderman Schick—That last year a resolution to have Tubby street graded had been referred to the board of public works, who had not taken action on it and that the board be requested to report what action it had taken in the matter at the next meeting.

Alderman Lemister—That Hanratty street be depressed.

Alderman Parish—That east end of Pierpont street be depressed.

Alderman Kullman—That board of public works clean up McEntee street.

SUNDAY BASEBALL COUNCIL DENIES UP ON APRIL 19

Alderman Lemister's Ordinance Allowing Professional Sunday Ball Laid Over to That Time When a Public Hearing Will Be Held.

The Sunday baseball question popped up again at the regular monthly meeting of the common council Tuesday evening when Alderman Lemister of the Fourth ward, introduced an ordinance allowing games on the first day of the week. The ordinance provided that games must be played after 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and that one of the contesting nines must be a local aggregation.

When the ordinance was introduced and read Alderman Roosa moved that it be laid on the table until a public hearing could be held, and such hearing be held on Tuesday evening, April 19. His motion was promptly seconded by Alderman Higgins.

Alderman Schick of the Third ward said that he thought a public hearing was the proper solution of the matter. The present ordinance did not state when it was to go into effect, and did not protect the hospitals, churches or sick persons in prohibiting playing within certain districts. He said that last year when the matter was up he had voted against Sunday ball as the sentiment was against the proposition in his ward. It was not until later that it was brought to his attention that Sunday ball was wanted by a number of the residents of the Third ward. He said that if the matter was held open two weeks he would likely have a referendum vote taken in the matter in his ward. He said that he had been alderman for ten years, and had always tried to play square.

Alderman Macholdt of the Ninth ward said, "We had a public hearing last year. What good did it do. The ordinance was defeated." The alderman from the Ninth then accused Alderman Schick of double-crossing him in the matter of Sunday baseball last year. At that time Alderman Macholdt said the ordinance had been shown Alderman Schick and he had agreed to vote for it if certain changes were made in it. The ordinance was taken downstairs to the city judge's office and the changes laid out, and then Schick voted against its adoption.

Alderman Schick said that the only fair way to decide the question was by giving the people a chance to be heard. As far as an admission fee to games stood he was willing to contribute $50 if that could be omitted from the proposed ordinance, and make it read no admission fee to be charged.

"It is possible that there is any alderman ready to finance Sunday baseball," asked Alderman Roosa of the Second ward.

"Sure there is," said Alderman Purvis of the Thirteenth ward, while President Dittus agreed with Purvis on the proposition.

There being no further discussion the baseball question was laid over to the public hearing to be held as stated.

One Way to Tell.
As a general thing you can tell from the back of a man's neck in the street car whether he will offer his seat to the lady who is standing in front of him.—Galveston News.

DO YOU CATCH
COLD EASILY?

HOW TO AVOID IT

Colds are due to germs. No one can prevent the germs from getting into your nose and throat. But you can help keep plenty of strong, vigorous, "antibodies" in your blood to fight and kill off the nasty "cold germs" before they do you any harm. To develop these germ destroying antibodies, properly, you must have plenty of pure, rich, red blood and a strong, vigorous constitution—in fact, this is the best preventive against almost any disease.

If you are weak, nervous or run-down, or subject to colds, take no chances. One day you may develop serious throat, bronchitis or lung trouble or perhaps pneumonia and you may go off like a shot. Therefore commence to enrich your blood and fortify yourself against "cold germs" today. To build more and better blood and make stronger nerves, there is nothing superior to NUXATED IRON as it contains organic iron like the iron in your blood combined with a product representing the principal chemical constituent of active living nerve force for focusing the nerves. Nuxated Iron must therefore be said to be both a blood and a nerve food. It often recovers the body and mental vigor, strength and endurance in two weeks' time.

Over 4,000,000 people are using it annually. It has been highly recommended by former United States Senators, U. S. Army Generals, many physicians and prominent men. Even the Pope at Rome has recommended it favorably in a communication to the Proprietors of the Pharmacy Formule of Paris. Satisfaction guaranteed or the manufacturers will refund your money. Beware of substitutes. Look for the word "NUXATED" on every package and the letters N. I. on every tablet. Sold by all druggists.
